

TAKE YOUR OWN PHOTOGRAPH

MUSEUM
OF CARPET
KIDDERMINSTER

The Museum of Carpet wants you to take photographs for our summer exhibition
Generation: The People and Production of Kidderminster.

See your work in the exhibition!

The exhibition shows photographs from our archives of the Kidderminster carpet industry and local community over the last century.

It shows the changes that have taken place in people's lives, the carpet industry, and the landscape of Kidderminster itself over many generations, as well as what has stayed the same.

We want you to complete the story with photographs that show life in Kidderminster and surrounding areas now. Think about themes of history, hope and the future.

You can photograph anything or anyone: buildings, landscapes, activities, portraits and more!

We are looking for photos which show enthusiasm and pride in the town and its people. No experience needed!

A panel of photographers, curators and volunteers will look at your photos and exhibit them with our old photographs in the exhibition.

The Small Print
